

Why invest in the UK?

Openness of government administration, local authorities and stakeholders towards business. High environmental awareness of air quality problem.

The UK has developed a world-leading offer for investors across the clean growth economy.

The UK is leading the race to a net zero carbon economy with the support of cutting edge-technology businesses.

Airly is the leading cost-effective SaaS solution for hyperlocal air quality monitoring and control. The UK is leading the race to an air pollution free economy with the support of cutting edge-technology businesses. With nearly 300 real-time air quality sensors, Airly is one of the UK's largest providers of outdoor air quality monitoring solutions.

Setting up in the UK was another step in Airly's global expansion. UK market positively surprised the company with a very high level of air quality awareness and a significant emphasis placed on education in this area. UK market instantly embraced Airly's solution and Birmingham, the UK's second largest city, decided to adopt it and provide 140 schools with sensors measuring PM1, PM2.5, PM10 and gas emissions.

Airly provides solutions to local governments, companies, universities and organizations that care about the clean air in the UK, including: Birmingham City Council, London Borough of Lambeth, Haringey Council, Southampton City Council, Central Bedfordshire Council, NHS, JCDecaux, Connected Kerb Ricardo plc, Westcotec Limited and many more.

300

Real-time air quality sensors
across the UK

280,000

Bedfordshire residents have access to real-time air quality data

Interested in investing in the UK?
investinuk@britishembassy.pl

